

Mother's Day Checklist

You might be away for Mother's Day, but that doesn't mean you can't do a few things to show your wife just how much you appreciate her. We've put together a little checklist to help you out.

- Send a good morning text message with lots of  emoticons
- Arrange flowers/chocolate/hamper delivery (you can even ask a friend to drop it off for you)
- Make time for a quick Facetime/Skype call to tell her how much you love and appreciate her
- Help the kids make/write on cards. Hide them somewhere for the kids to give to her or where you know she'll find them (like the nappy drawer)
- Shop for some sweet presents in advance and again hide them for the kids to give her
- Make a date for another day when you can spoil her

These things don't have to be expensive, it's the thought that counts and a little bit of effort will go a long way.
